FREE PLAYMONEY ROOM

The PlayMoney Room will remain open and is FREE to use at all times and you can not loose any of your own money as no real money will be accepted from any member until February 1st, 2007

RESULTS DISPLAY

In a recent change, we now show the last 100 results from ALL games played, so you can see quickly the action - as there were so many hands played, the list of all boards played in the last 30 days grew so large that it took a long time to display on browsers so we put on the new limit. This is still a test mode and normally you will only see the hands that YOU have played in once we get fully underway. Each board played, can be reviewed in detail in a playback mode.

ANONYMITY

Since last week, we now assign a totally random number as your alias. In the final version, we will only show you as North, South, East or West on this replay facility.

COSTINGS

Following comments, I want to clarify that our E-Wallet company, "Click2Pay" charges covers all the bank charges both in and out from any source, but in fact it is usually free to deposit. We are currently awaiting and updated clarification of the final split value which we will clearly show on the web site information exactly what the in and out costs are. Remember, Click2Pay has a very sophisticated system which even allows you to have their own credit card from which you can withdraw your winnings at most ATM's. This way removes the charges for cheques or wire transfer withdrawals. The charges are NOT ours in any way but they also cover all our fraud insurance and credit due diligence legal requirements. You will know and be assured that each and every player you play with and against, is genuine and has been validated by a personal phone call. We believe this is essential to give full peace of mind when playing in our club. More on this and how your "bonus" account can offset all the costs in future newsletters.

PLAYER ABILITY RATING

Now we have sufficient real data, we are finalising the algorithm we will use to show your partners ability rating. This we feel is important for you to play at the best of your own ability and overall strategy.
